Why Make a Will?

Making a will is the only way to ensure that your wishes are carried out after your death. Without a valid will, your property and assets will pass under the Law of intestacy. In any event it is likely to cost more and take longer than if a will had been made. Making a will lets your loved ones know that you cared enough to sort things out in advance.

Single will from £190.00 incl. VAT. Mirror wills from £250.00 incl. VAT

We live in a warring world. We see this in the local, national and international news. We may also encounter aggression in our everyday lives. As we drive, on the train, in the shops, or even within ourselves.

There was once a king who offered a prize to the artist who could paint the best picture of peace. Many artists tried. The king looked at all the pictures, but there were only two that he really liked, and he had to choose between them.

One picture was of a calm lake. The lake was a perfect mirror for the peaceful towering mountains all around it. Overhead was a blue sky with fluffy white clouds. All who saw this picture thought that it was a perfect picture of peace.

The second picture had mountains, too. But these were rugged and bare. Above was an angry sky from which rain fell, and in which lightening played. Down the side of the mountain tumbled a foaming waterfall. This did not look peaceful at all. But when the king looked, he saw behind the waterfall a tiny bush growing in a crack in the rock. In the bush a mother bird had built her nest.... a perfect picture of peace.

Which of the pictures won the prize? The king chose the second picture.

Do you know why? "Because" explained the king, "peace does not mean to be in a place where there is no noise, trouble or hard work. Peace means to be in the midst of all those things and still be calm in your heart. That is the real meaning of peace."

Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid." (John 14:27)

We can know the peace of Jesus. This is more than an absence of hostilities but a deep knowledge that God loves us unconditionally and has accepted us through what Jesus has done for us. This enables us to be at peace with God, people and nature. We just need to ask him.

I pray that you will know more of the peace of Christ in our tumultuous world.

The peace of the Lord be always with you.

WHAT HAVE WE BEEN READING?

WHICH BOOK? – A YEAR AT THE CHATEAU by Dick and Angel Strawbridge (2020)

WHAT'S IT ABOUT? – Dick and Angel Strawbridge bought an unloved, dilapidated old chateau in rural France when they had two very young children. What an undertaking! They wrote the book after several years of hindsight and very clear memories – basic plumbing and no power. Neither of them spoke fluent French. A mountain to climb. A very entertaining journey to follow.

WAS IT ON THE MOBILE LIBRARY? – Yes. The picture of the family on the front cover caught my eye.

Their story was made into a TV series – the proceeds helped the transformation of the chateau.

Wander along the footpath through Lady's Wood, between Newnham and Eastling and you'll find an amazing beech tree covered in over a hundred years' worth of arborglyphs. That's just a fancy word for carvings in the bark! As has been traditional since ancient times, they've mainly been made as a symbol of the permanence of a couple's love. Beech seems to be the tree of choice in our parishes for graffiti, with another good example in Decoy Wood, Doddington.

A citizen science project in Hampshire set out to record all the arborglyphs in the New Forest. Trees falling or dying pose a threat to these historical markings, as well as the carvings fading or being damaged by animals or people. In addition to names, dates and initials, the project found concentric circles or "witches' marks" warding off evil spirits and broad arrowheads known as the "King's Mark" used to identify trees reserved for building Royal Navy ships. So, historical eyes peeled as you wander through our local woods, you never know what you might see!

Update from your local MP Helen Whately

I hope you all had a good Christmas break and have a very Happy New Year.

As I reflect back on 2025 the thing that hits me most is the amount of development planned for my constituency. If it all goes ahead it will mean an extra 20,000 plus houses which is double the size of Faversham Town.

The big developments in the pipeline include:

- * Lenham Heath – 5,000 houses
- * Lidsing Garden Village – houses
- * Winterbourne Fields – houses
- * Duchy development, Faversham – 2,500 houses
- Highsted Park – 8,400 houses

And these developments do not include the two huge solar farms: Graveney and Bistock near Rodmersham, nor the many smaller developments of 50 plus houses popping up all over the place.

Together, they will not only change this part of Kent for ever, but the extra cars will bring our roads to a standstill. That's why I am pressing for the lion's share of new housing to go in towns and cities where there is the infrastructure, public transport and jobs to support it.

I have made my views clear to Maidstone Borough Council, Swale Borough Council and the Government that high quality agricultural land should be used for farming and that this amount of development is too much for this part of Kent.

Over the summer I signed a letter to the Prime Minister calling for a clear ban on large solar developments on our most productive farmland and for the Government to prioritize solar panels on buildings and brownfield sites instead.

This year I plan to do even more. I will start 2026 with a 'New year no more new houses' petition to present to the Government making clear the strength of feeling against these developments.

If you are interested in supporting my campaign sign up to my newsletter <https://www.helenwhately.org.uk/sign-my-newsletter-here> or Google 'Helen Whately MP newsletters' to find out more.

And together we can make sure the Government can no longer ignore us.

As ever, if there is anything I can do to help you please contact me.

Best wishes

Helen

NEWNHAM CHURCH CLOCK UPDATE

The long-awaited church clock restoration is now nearing completion. An engineer from the Cumbria Clock Company visited site on Friday 12th December to fit the escapement mechanism for which a replacement component had to be manufactured from scratch. It was this component that introduced the long delay and much of the work was completed in March. Cumbria Clock had to outsource the manufacture to a precision engineering company and had no control over the scheduling of the work unfortunately.

At long last the clock is running again and chiming the hour with the new feature of night silencing. Silent hours can be adjusted if necessary. Once the clock has had a few weeks running to settle in, Cumbria Clock will be back on site to fit the regulator, a device that ensures the clock keeps accurate time. Feedback has been positive with villagers pleased to have the clock working again. A few people have remarked that the chimes are not as loud as they used to be. A new linkage had been installed between the clock and the hammer. The engineer will be asked to adjust this to increase the back stroke when he next visits.

Residents are being targeted by email scams in the run up to Christmas.

Here are two examples that are making the rounds - 1. Offerings of “free rewards” if you complete a survey or click a link. 2. Claims you’ll lose your cloud storage unless you update your details. If an email contains a link, it’s highly likely to be a scam. Don’t click it. We are all vulnerable to scams, be wary and warn others.

Report to: Citizens Advice Consumer Helpline or Kent Police.

Phone scam: A caller claimed the resident had been entered into the Euromillions and asked for personal details.

Email scam: A message claimed the recipient had won a prize in the postcode lottery. They paid a small postage fee, then discovered a much larger amount had been taken from their account.

Never share personal or financial details with unexpected callers or emails.
If something sounds too good to be true, it probably is.

SWALE BOUROUGH COUNCIL

Strengthening Preparedness Together in Swale – pilot project update

The Kent and Medway Resilience Forum (KMRF) is making good progress with its collaborative project partnering with training partner Communities Prepared to support communities in Swale. Stakeholder engagement work continues and first round of topic-based public webinars, Introduction to Resilience, were well received, generating a lot of interest from key stakeholders, including Swale BC councillors and key local community support organisations.

Focussed work with Swale parishes is also going well, with Minster-on-Sea’s parish community resilience plan already fully completed and Faversham Town Council among several with plans in progress. Preliminary discussions about parish cluster planning are in progress.

The first in-person community training event in Swale, supported by various partners is scheduled in the New Year. To become involved or find out more email krt@kent.fire-uk.org

A new bespoke webinar series is planned for January to March will be widely promoted in Swale to residents, with daytime and evening options available. Here are the January details which parishes and councillors are encouraged to promote within their communities.

Nature Notes

So far, it's been a fairly quiet late autumn in terms of birds. There are small numbers of Redwings, Fieldfares and Siskins around, but it feels as if the winter hasn't really started yet. But there have been a few surprises. First a Little Egret which very briefly visited our garden pond: these mid-sized, white herons are more normally associated with marshland, but very occasionally turn up locally (I've probably seen two or three around the village over the last decade or so). Little Egrets used to be very rare visitors to the UK but increased in numbers in the second half of the 20th Century; they first bred in Kent in 2000. Perhaps even more surprising was a Water Rail in Amanda and Rob Brookman's garden pond in late November. Water Rails are relatives of moorhens, grey and brown in colour and with long, red bills. They are famously secretive, and though they are resident in Kent, they mainly spend their time in dense reed beds and only very rarely come into the open. Usually the only way you know they are there is when they call – unmistakable, as they sound like a pig squealing!

November saw the publication of the Local Nature Recovery Strategy for Kent and Medway, called 'Making Space for Nature'. Local Nature Recovery Strategies cover all of England, and are a government-driven initiative intended to set out local priorities for restoring habitats, ecosystems, and populations of wild species. Part of the strategy process was to create a list of the rare, threatened or otherwise notable species which occur in Kent and Medway – this came to well over a thousand species – and then whittle this down to a list of priority species which urgently require action to protect and restore their populations. The final priority list includes 146 species, of which, it turns out around 10% (at least) can be found in our parishes: these include Four-banded Weevil Wasp; Oak Mining Bee; Wall Butterfly; Common Toad; House Martin; Linnet; Marsh Tit; Yellowhammer; Brown Hare; Brown Long-eared Bat; Serotine Bat; Dormouse; and Hedgehog.

Of course, the Local Nature Recovery Strategy will only be any good if it can be delivered, and it is not clear whether there will be any funding directed towards this. However, there is an increasing number of initiatives in the county that are led by farmers and landowners which may prove to have a really important contribution. In our area, the new Chalk to Coast project aims to link up habitats across a vast area of North Kent from Wrotham and Dartford in the west and Chilham and Whitstable in the east. The project includes a number of 'core corridor routes' for reconnecting habitats, one of which runs right down our valley, taking in Wychling, Doddington and Newnham. So it could be a Happy new year for nature!

You can find the Kent and Medway Local Nature Recovery Strategy here:

<https://www.makingspacefornaturekent.org.uk/>.

The Chalk to Coast project is here <https://www.chalktocoast.co.uk/>, and they are especially looking for more local land managers and land-owners to become involved and join local farms and holdings including Woodsell Farm, the Torry Hill Estate and Syndale Farm in coming together and working to restore nature.
